

Ain't It The Truth?

You are regarded with suspicion when you have to work late at the office:

You are liable to get arrested if you offer to escort an old lady across the street:

But you are as popular as a rich bachelor at a summer resort when you pass around your cigarettes.

'Cause they're MECCA!

Ain't It The Truth?

The tobaccos of the mild Turkish blend of MECCA are aged from 2 to 3 years.

These thoroughly ripened and mellowed tobaccos are then combined in the MECCA Turkish Blend by skillful blend-experts.

A wonder for Quality—a marvel at the price—that's MECCA.

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

A. E. Draper of Morrisville has a white leghorn hen's egg measuring 8 by 7 inches and weighing 4 1/2 ounces.

Dorset is indebted to one of her summer residents for a generous donation, the village schools being the recipient of a villa from Mrs. J. H. Musser of Philadelphia.

The Fairbanks museum, St. Johnsbury, has offered to the pupils of the manual training classes of the schools of St. Johnsbury prizes for the best birdhouses made without help. They are to be judged on their merits in workmanship, design, and utility for birds' homes. Already there have been about 50 entries for this competition.

DESCENDANT OF HANNAH DUSTIN.

Mrs. Susan Hoisington, Native of Vermont, is 91 Years Old.

Mrs. Susan Hoisington, a native of Chelsea, observed her 91st birthday anniversary at her home in Derry, N. H., March 20. She was the daughter of Timothy and Susan Shepard Dustin. On April 20, 1823, Mrs. Hoisington was married to Lyman Hoisington of Rochester, by Elder George Guernsey. They lived for a number of years in Rochester and Woodstock, then moved to Newport, R. I., then to Lowell, Mass. After some years, they returned to Rochester and resided there till they came to Derry 30 years ago.

Mrs. Hoisington is of the fifth generation from the famous Hannah Dustin. Since the organization of the Dustin family association a number of years ago, she always attended the annual meetings until age prevented.

At the age of 14 her father was drafted into a regiment for the war of 1812. At the same time, among several others, her grandfather was also drafted.

At the outbreak of the Civil war five of Mrs. Hoisington's brothers enlisted. Three returned home. John died soon after from a disease contracted in the service. George died in a hospital near Washington. Timothy died in a hospital in New Orleans. William Dustin, the last surviving brother, died eight years ago.

She has two younger sisters, Mrs. Charles Read of Methuen, Mass., and Mrs. Henry Clough of Lowell, Mass.; also three sons, Clarence L. of Derry, William of Bethel, and Charles F. of Lowell, Mass. She has 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

She is remarkably well and active, keeping house for herself and son, Clarence.

MONEY LEFT TO CHURCHES.

By Will of Mrs. Mary Morse, Late of Brattleboro.

Brattleboro, March 22.—By the will of Mrs. Mary Morse, who died in the home for the aged March 7, it is provided that the residue of her estate shall be divided equally between the Congregational church of Westminster and the First Congregational church of Brattleboro, these churches to use the income of the bequests. It is understood that each church will receive about $3,000.

The will of Mrs. Harriet (Van Doorn) Brown, who died March 8, in her home on Williston street, makes numerous personal bequests and in addition the sum of $100 is given to the Center Congregational church of Brattleboro and $50 to the church and Sunday school at North Thetford.

To the Vermont Home Missionary society is given "whatever there may be due and unpaid from Charles H. Hosford on my house and lot heretofore conveyed by me to him and all that he, the said Hosford, can obtain in excess of the sum of $5,000, the purchase price of said house and lot, by his disposing of the same at the best advantage he can do otherwise than by sale at public auction." Mr. Hosford is named as the executor of the will. He is an attorney in Melrose.

MORE RHEUMATISM THAN EVER BEFORE

Clergymen, Lawyers, Brokers, Mechanics and Merchants Stricken

Our old friend Rheumatiz is having his inning this year, and a few words of caution from one who knows all about it may not be amiss.

Wear rubbers in damp weather; keep your feet dry; drink plenty of lemonade, and avoid strong alcoholic drinks.

If rheumatism gets you, or sciatica, and you have sharp twinges, gnawing pain or swollen joints or muscles, you can get rid of all agony in just a few days by taking one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma once a day.

All druggists know about Rheuma; it's harmless, yet powerful; cheap, yet sure, and a 50-cent bottle will last a long time. Ask the Red Cross Pharmacy or any druggist—Adv.
